VENDOR INFORMATION

ARC is pleased to announce the close of our business combination transaction with Seven Generations. The transaction brings together two strong companies to form a premier Montney producer that is a leader in responsible energy development and drive significant value for all stakeholders. The combined company will operate as ARC and will remain headquartered in Calgary, Alberta.

Following the combination of ARC and Seven Generations, we would like to update you on what this means for you as a vendor of ARC:

Current Status

- There are no changes to current service provider or supplier contracts, processes or purchase orders.
- There are no changes to current invoicing processes.
- There is no change to the 24-hour emergency contact numbers:
  - ARC: 403-292-0434
  - Seven Generations: 403-444-1471.
- There are no expected impacts to planned capital activities.
- At the combined company, safe production will continue to be a number one priority. All current health and safety programs, processes and associated requirements remain in effect.
